A new report says that councils spent over £77m supporting people with no recourse to public funds - a 22% increase on the previous year. A Yorkshire and Humber specific report is also available. (Source: NRPF Network)

Specific migrant groups

This article about a man from Yemen who is seeking asylum here sheds light on the complexities of asylum claims. (Source: Independent)

On EU nationals, the Independent Monitoring Authority (IMA) has published regional reports on the support provided by local authorities to EU children in care who are eligible to apply to the EUSS. In Yorkshire and Humber, issues raised in most local authorities include a lack of documented processes and written operational guidelines. Furthermore, the IMA issued a statement raising concerns about the Home Office's implementation of a High Court judgment on pre-settled status expiry. It highlighted that a two-year extension for pre-settled status does not address the court's ruling, and that there is a lack of clarity regarding automatic acquisition of permanent residence rights. (Source: IMA)

A new report highlights that at least 1,300 children were incorrectly classified as adults by the Home Office during an 18-month period. Many of these young people were placed in adult asylum hotels and 14 children spent time in adult prisons, sharing cells with adult males. (Source: Refugee Council)

Following a High Court hearing, the government has now amended its guidance which from January last year had resulted in modern slavery victims with criminal convictions being excluded from support through the National Referral Mechanism. Also on modern slavery, this article highlights the ongoing concerns about exploitation of migrant workers in the social care sector. Finally, a new report calls for a better response to trafficking in humanitarian settings. (Sources: the Guardian, Justice and Care)

Cohesion and integration
